THE LIGHT IN THE HALL

Joe Pritchard, a quiet, unassuming gardener, was arrested for Ela's murder after her DNA was found at his caravan. 18 years later, he is released on parole. For journalist Cat Donato, one of Ela's best friends before a silly teenage squabble got in the way, it is a chance to write the true events surrounding the murder. For Sharon, Ela's mother, who has never stopped grieving the loss of her daughter, it is a chance to confront the man who killed her child and to give her a proper burial.

If Joe Pritchard did kill Ela, why did he do it, and where is the body?

THE BEST OF US

Killing the champion, revealing the man

When local star athlete Abel Guérin is found dead in a snowy field, a bullet in his head, his little village is in shock. Awa Sissako, a young police captain from the city, is dispatched on the case to support the local lieutenant.

Everyone is befuddled by the murder, since Abel seemed beloved and admired by all... But through the investigation, this image of the ideal hometown hero gradually crumbles and, very quickly, Awa understands that Abel's entourage, while cooperating on the surface, is hiding many secrets. Awa only has a few days to find out the truth before the start of the highly-publicised World Cup in the village...

WHY WE LIKE IT

An effective whodunit full of twists shaking up a winter sports competition in the snowy Alps. The female detective from the city, haunted by her own brother's death, finds herself a fish out of water in this small village where everyone knows each other.

A GOOD FAMILY

When his young son goes missing, notorious crime boss Lefa blackmails police detective Anna, who he has history with, for inside information on the case. When the mysterious disappearance turns into a homicide investigation, the trail leads right back to Anna's own son, Niko.

Anna does everything in her power to cover Niko's tracks and protect him from both his fellow officers and Lefa's murderous wrath, while keeping her crime novelist husband, Henrik, in the dark... But Henrik is keeping a secret from her, too: he is also helping Niko to cover up the murder.

Anna and Henrik are thrust into a dangerous underworld, where parental instincts quickly overcome morality.

TRUE COLOURS

Your laws don't apply here

Aboriginal detective Toni Alma is assigned to investigate a suspicious car accident in Perda Theendar, the community she left as a child and has had little to do with since.

As the clues lead back to her own family, Toni has to navigate her way between the white and black laws, the complexities of the Aboriginal art world, to find a killer who is way too close to home.

WHY WE LIKE IT

Set in the heart of Australia in a beautifully cinematic style, TRUE COLOURS follows Toni on an epic hunt for a killer and on her very human pursuit of identity and belonging.

PANDORE

How far will you go?

While the Belgian conservative party's campaign is disrupted by a corruption investigation, the rape of a young woman brings together four very different characters: Claire, an investigating judge, Mark, a politician, Ludivine, a feminist activist and Sasha, a young journalist.

Each of them will defend their own truth.

BLACKPORT

Africa has gold, Colombia has cocaine,
Iceland has fish

Set in the 1980s in a small Icelandic fishing village, the story follows a married couple, Harpa and Grímur, who along with their childhood friends build a small fishing empire thanks to the introduction of the fishing quota system in the country.

But the struggle for power deeply corrupts the couple, resulting in a feud of jealousy, greed and betrayal.

WHY WE LIKE IT

BLACKPORT's unleashed creativity never fails to catch the humour, the drama and the absurd in this tale of greed, where personal relationships, business and politics get all tangled up.

ALEX

Not a cop anymore, not a criminal yet

At the end of season 1, Alex's world totally fell apart. He saved his son from the mafia but paid a heavy price. His wife left him and he got sent to jail for killing a police officer.

Surviving as an ex-cop in a high-security prison is no easy task. His only chance might very well be to join the gangs he fought in his former life. But when his ex-partner Frida offers to reduce his sentence in exchange for becoming an undercover informant, hope reignites in Alex. His family needs him, especially his son Simon, who is taking a wrong path in life. Maybe he still has a shot at redemption?

WHY WE LIKE IT

Dark and gritty, an action-packed Nordic crime drama signed by the same team behind the Easy Money trilogy.

THE MURDERS

Meet Detective Kate Jameson, the daughter of city councillor Rita Gallo and the late Adam Jameson, a much-decorated officer who was killed in the line of duty two years previous.

With the fight for justice deeply rooted in her, Jameson's only desire is to be a good cop like her father. She's determined to make her mark in homicide. But things go horribly awry when Jameson breaks the number one rule of policing – never leave your gun unattended – and gets her partner killed. Haunted by her fatal mistake, a driven Jameson will seek to make amends through every case and prove herself.

Everybody is guilty of something

WHY WE LIKE IT

With strong plots in each episode, compelling characters and a diverse cast, THE MURDERS immediately appeared to us as the new effective procedural series broadcasters were waiting for.

FENIX

Vendetta, ecstasy... Welcome to Brabant.

A drug war in Brabant, a province in the south of the Netherlands, ends up in a bloodbath. Jos Segers, the head of the losing drug operation and Peter Haag, the Public Prosecutor for Brabant, are among the victims. Jos' son, Rens, and Peter's daughter, Jara, are left to pick up the pieces.

Unaware of each other, they start a similar journey, leaving their quiet lives behind to return to their hometown and restore their families' honour.

WHY WE LIKE IT

Dark, atmospheric and exquisitely directed, FENIX stands out from other crime shows thanks to a unique setting and memorable characters. A series that draws you in and never lets go.

GIGANTES

The rules of the game have changed

In season 1, the Guerrero brothers, who controlled the drug traffic in the Iberian Peninsula, betrayed each other to take the head of the family after their father's death. They ended up divided and weakened.

In season 2, the brothers Tomás, Daniel and Clemente will have to put their hatred for each other aside and join forces again to survive. Both the gypsies and the police want them dead, but the greatest threat will come from the women around them: Sol Guerrero is tempted to give up on her husband Tomás to protect their daughter.

WHY WE LIKE IT

Realistic and Shakespearian, GIGANTES is more than a mafia show or a family drama. It's a very cinematic story of fraternal love and hate at the crossroads between Gomorra and The Godfather. Outstanding.

THE FOREST

Follow the tracks

Eve is a teacher in a small town surrounded by a deep forest. When she was a little girl, she was found wandering alone in that very same forest, with no memory of what happened to her. Twenty years after those events, one of Eve's teenage students goes missing after going into the forest. And then another... Could this all be happening again?

Between a tormented past, small town secrets and the complicated lives of today's youth, the investigation had to find the truth. The next gripping crime mystery from France.

VALKYRIEN

Go beyond Nordic Noir

Ravn, a respected physician, is desperately seeking a cure for his dying wife, Vilma. When the hospital stops her treatment, Ravn continues to work in secret. He is aided by the corrupt civil defence man Leif, a doomsday prepper and former patient of his.

Deep underground, Ravn and Leif open an illegal clinic to treat off-the-grid patients. The clinic finances Ravn's research into a cure for Vilma, while Leif improves his position among the criminals and the paranoids who live outside the welfare state.

WHY WE LIKE IT

A must-see, VALKYRIEN is a high-concept Nordic thriller which brilliantly plays on the twisted relationship between Ravn and Leif, a duo not unlike another one we've seen in Breaking Bad.

CONTACT

Solving crimes one touch at a time

Thomas Adam has a unique gift: when he touches an object, he can visualise the secret memories that are attached to it.

When assisting his policeman brother on a kidnapping case, he unearths a mysterious conspiracy that could finally lead the two brothers to the person who murdered their parents and kidnapped their little sister, more than 15 years ago. Between their daily investigations for the Police and the search for their missing sister, danger is always around the corner.

WHY WE LIKE IT

Warm and bright like the South of France where the series is based, CONTACT shines thanks to a compelling family-driven narrative.

YOUNG AND PROMISING

Try, fail, find your way

When do you go from being young and full of potential to over the hill and pathetic? Three girls are all trying their best to break into their careers and adulthood. Life in a big city offers commitments, anxiety, self-sabotage, sex, love, and an undying ambition for something more than a “normal” life...

Elise wants to be a comedian. Nenne wants to be a writer. Alex wants to be an actress. As they keep trying and failing, the girls discover that pretty much no one, including their parents, has any idea of what they're actually doing with their lives.

WHY WE LIKE IT

The European answer to Girls, YOUNG & PROMISING's true-to-life approach and endearing characters won over our hearts.

A VERY SECRET SERVICE

From France with love

1960. The world stage is dominated by a superpower, the very symbol of freedom, the great victor of World War II - la belle France.

Young André Merlaux is thrilled when he's accepted into the French secret service. Under the tutelage of three elite agents, André is entrusted with the toughest missions, like figuring out America's obsession for communism and making friends with the Germans. André is a fast learner and may just become the finest of the finest secret agents. But he falls in love with the wrong girl...

WHY WE LIKE IT

When we first saw A VERY SECRET SERVICE, we knew we had found the French missing link between James Bond and The Office. The perfect blend of fun and style.

WOLF

A HARTSWOOD FILMS & APC STUDIOS
COPRODUCTION FOR BBC
ONE

In an isolated house in Monmouthshire, the wealthy Anchor-Ferrers family find themselves the victims of a psychopath's cruel mind games. Trapped and terrorised inside their own home, they pray that someone will come to their rescue. But who?

DI Jack Caffery's youthful façade hides a troubled soul; he blames himself for his brother's abduction in the 90s. And with the killer still at large, Jack's desire to exact revenge is an ever-present itch.

When Jack unearths a clue that will lead him to the Anchor-Ferrers' home, our two narratives race forward on a nail-biting collision course. WOLF is a heightened world of crime, horror and pitch-dark humour, which begs the question: Will Jack make it to the house on time?
