BY THE CREATORS OF KID-E-CATS.

A large, close-knit family of sheep who run a small, independent hotel for guests with kids.

5-year-old Bella and her older brother 7-year-old Benny meet new animal guests of all sorts, from penguins to elephants, and try to help their parents transform the hotel into a popular vacation destination, when they're not at school or playing with their friends.

We see the goings-on in the hotel through the eyes of Bella and Benny, who desperately want to help their family make a success of it – so much so, that they sometimes end up in comical situations...
